DAILY THOUGHT.

"Thankful for strength in strife—For faith as steadfast as the stars above;
Thankful that life is life,
And Love is Love!"

THE WEATHER.

Fair and continued cold tonight and Saturday.

A city law has been passed in South Fulton that no one can vote who has not paid poll tax. This was made necessary by the fact that the city needs the money.

According to the dispatches a Democrat of Wolfe county who has been holding three offices has actually resigned all three of them—but then he is going to move to Indian Territory.

President Castro is willing to arbitrate and The Hague tribunal is satisfactory to him. One thing is certain.
They can't give him much less than he and his government are entitled to.

Christmas passed off in Paducah without many accidents, and everybody seemed happy. Another year's work now begins, and everyone should see that it is a good one, and productive of unprecedented advancement to the city.

In less than two weeks Circuit Judge Husbands will render an opinion in the injunction suits against the city, and set at rest, for a time at least, all the talk of this and that class and whether or not this or that officer can hold his job. It is hoped that it will do away with talk and confusion, and that Paducah will enter the new year with every prospect of continued progress during the year.

Hon. Perry S. Heath of Salt Lake City, Utah, is spending the holidays in Louisville, and is receiving a warm welcome from his many Kentucky friends. Mr. Heath is talked of as a candidate for the United States senate from Utah, and is at present editor of one of the largest papers in the West. He was formerly assistant postmaster general and is one of the most popular men in the country.

Hanging negroes must be an important item of news, judging from the prominence some of the leading Southern papers give such occurrences—when they happen in a Northern or Western state. The limited space of the papers generally describes such lynchings when they occur in the Southern state indicates rather a commonplace occurrence, and is expected rather than a course.

A prisoner was released from jail today because it is claimed there was no one to show cause why he should be held until a requisition, in the way arrived. This is the first time the police force of Paducah has been called upon to try to protect the public from all bad characters.

In this case a bad man, suspected of many crimes and guilty of others for which he is now wanted, was arrested and held after much trouble and expense to the officers, and just on the eve of being turned over to the proper authorities was turned out to again become a menace to society, because the attorneys for the commonwealth were not present.

RED IS FREE AGAIN

Released on a Writ of Habeas Corpus this Morning.

Immediately Skipped Out and Is Probably Far Away By This Time.

PROSECUTION UNREPRESENTED

Red Marcum, alias Galloway, alias Johnson, got his freedom as a Christmas present today. He is now doubtless out of reach of the officers of the law, who hoped that in a few days he would be back again behind prison bars in Illinois.

Marcum was arrested last week suspected of being implicated in the Lola Ky., safe blowing, and after being held a few days a warrant was received from Chester, Ill., for his detention, and an officer arrived to take back to Chester, where he is wanted for violating his parole while serving a sentence for larceny. He is also wanted in Carmi, Ill., for breaking jail. He refused to return without a requisition, and the officer went back to get one.

This morning Chief Collins received a telegram from Frankfort that the requisition of the Illinois governor had been honored, and about the same time received information that Marcum had been released by Judge Husbands on a writ of habeas corpus taken out before him several days ago.

The officer who came here from Illinois and swore out the warrant against Marcum made affidavit that violation of parole is a felony in Illinois, and this would make it extradi-table, but when the writ of habeas corpus was called in circuit court this morning Marcum and his attorneys were there and there was no one to represent the commonwealth.

Judge James Campbell, for the prisoner, made his statement to the court, and there being no objection entered, Marcum was ordered released.

Chief Collins was not very much pleased and instructed his men to re-arrest Marcum if found, the requisition being expected this evening, but they could not find him, and he has doubtless put many miles between him and Paducah by this time.

DEATH OF MRS. BARNES

SUCCUMBED TO AN ILLNESS FROM CONGESTION LAST NIGHT.

Mrs. Anna Barnes, widow of the late Major George F. Barnes, died last night at the home of her mother, Mrs.
Robinson street, after a week's illness from congestion. The deceased was born in Pennsylvania, but had made this city her home for many years.
She was about 52 years old, and was one of Paducah's best known ladies.

She leaves two children, Mrs. Ella Elliott and Mrs. May Brown of Jefferson street. One daughter, Miss Della Barnes, died several years ago.

She leaves a brother, Mr. Tine Robinson, whose whereabouts are unknown. When last heard from he was living in Colorado.

The funeral will probably take place tomorrow afternoon, burial at Oak Grove.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

IT WAS GENERALLY ENJOYED
THROUGHOUT THE CITY.

Christmas was celebrated in Paducah about as usual. It was noisy at times, but everybody enjoyed a holiday, and the streets were for the most part deserted.

Services at various churches were well attended both in the forenoon and night, and Santa Claus seems to have done a rushing business, judging from the happy children in every part of the city.

Today the reaction from the holiday rush began in business circles, and there will be very little doing until after New Year.

There have been promises of a new kind that will be made for beer, leaving ample time for the

FOUR WERE INJURED

A Destructive Wreck This Morning on the Evansville District.

Trainmen Hurt, But None of Them Seriously—Several Cars Were Demolished.

OTHER RAILROAD NEWS

There was a serious freight wreck on the Evansville division of the I. C. this morning about 2:10 o'clock and several cars were wrecked and four persons injured as a result.

The wreck happened one-half a mile north of Livingston and was caused by the failure of the air brakes to work. The second section of freight No. 383 ran into the first section of the same train, No. 383. The second section was in charge of Engineer H. B.
Nickols and Conductor P. A. Steele.
The engine plowed its way through several cars, and the track was obstructed for more than ten hours on that division.

The wrecker from Paducah was sent out in haste to work the wreck and had not returned at press time. The injured are: Engineer Nickols, right leg bruised; G. W. Durake, right knee badly cut; H. R. Dillingham, both knees bruised; Lucian Martin, a colored brakeman, injured on the hand.
Five cars were derailed and wrecked and the damage will amount to considerable to the railroad company.

Notice has been filed here for the employees of the transportation department of the local I. C. relative to the quarterly watch inspection.
The regular monthly quarterly watch inspection for 1933 will be made between January 1 and 15, and all employees have been notified on other divisions also of the inspection. The I. C. employees are required to have the best of watches, and the watch inspection is quite an event to the rail-roaders, who pride themselves on their timepieces.

Mr. R. S. Barrick, the popular general yardmaster of the local I. C., was pleasantly surprised yesterday with a Christmas present in the shape of a fine overcoat and suit of clothes. The present is from the employees of the yard department and his other friends here. Mr. Barrick is the most popular yardmaster that has ever been stationed here and is proud of the present and the way in which the employees show their love and appreciation for him.

Trainmaster G. W. Spencer, of the Fulton district of the I. C., was in the city yesterday for the first time since he was appointed trainmaster of that district. He was here all day and made himself acquainted with all the local officials.

Mr. M. M. Hewitt, of the master mechanic's office here, will return from Louisville tomorrow with his family.

OVERCOME BY GAS

NARROW ESCAPE OF MR. ED-SON HART YESTERDAY
MORNING.

Mr. Edson Hart, youngest son of Capt. George O. Hart, had a close call from asphyxiation yesterday morning early. When Capt. Hart arose he as usual lighted a gas stove in his son's room in order to heat it.

It appears he failed to ignite some of the burners, and the escaping gas filled the room after he went out, and when young Mr. Hart was called later he could not be aroused. The room was well filled with gas, and the family immediately realized that the young man was overcome by the gas, and worked with him until he was revived, and he soon completely recovered.

BUT HE DIDN'T WANT IT.

Mr. L. C. Girardey received a unique Christmas present yesterday.
When the hired boy went down to the feed room, a small house in the rear of the store on Broadway, he found a cow inside. She had gone in to get her Christmas dinner and could not get out. She had filled up on feed to such an extent that she could not get out the way she got in.
After considerable work the house was torn away enough to release her.

Miss Teddy Key of Mayfield arrived in the city today at noon to visit Miss Ida Leake.
Mr. Miller has resided in Paducah fourteen years and will doubtless make the other aspirants to the title.

THE FIRST TOUCH

Old Boreas Came In With Vengeance
Last Night.

Mercury Fell to 8 Degrees Above Zero in This Locality.

MANY WATER PIPES BURST

The people of Paducah and this section are feeling the first touch of real winter today. The mercury last night went down to 8 degrees above zero, and today it has hovered about the 12 mark.

Many people awoke today to find their water pipes frozen, and while only a few burst, they may be heard from later. The plumbers have been unusually busy, but people have now had warning and will hereafter turn the water off at nights.

The news from surrounding districts indicates that there is general cold everywhere. Over in several Illinois cities the temperature was reported below zero, and yesterday's mails, especially those from the west, were nearly all delayed.

An effort to snow last night proved unavailing. The weather was too cold, and only a few flakes fell.

The first ice of the season for skating formed yesterday and last night, and today many of the schoolboys, who are enjoying a holiday until early in January, oiled up their skates and hid themselves to the ponds and lakes near the city. The indications are that skating parties will shortly become very popular.

THAT CHICKEN CASE

MRS. SARGENT WARRANTED
TODAY FOR GRAND LARCENY.

Mrs. Sargent, who for years has sold chickens on the market, was this morning warranted for grand larceny by Judge Sanders. She is charged with taking chickens belonging to Mr. Sam Hubbard, on Jefferson street near Tenth.

The chickens were stolen several nights ago, and a portion of them recovered on Mrs. Sargent's place near the city. Some of them had already been killed, but the others were so well identified by Mr. Hubbard that some of them came to him when he called.

The police claim that Mrs. Sargent has told several different stories about where she got the chickens, and she will now have to prove how she came into possession of them.

BOYS ARRESTED.

NONE OF THEM WILL BE PRO-SECUTED, HOWEVER.

About twenty-five or more small boys were arrested yesterday and last night for disobeying the order not to shoot cartridges in their guns, and their guns were taken away from them, but none of them will be prosecuted. Chief Collins does not desire to compel their parents to have to pay a fine to keep them out of the lockup, and let them all go.

Attorney Frank Lucas returned from Wingo this morning after spending the holidays with relatives.

GREAT REDUCTION

In Cloaks, Furs, Blankets and Holiday Goods

Christmas is past. Old stocks must give way to the new. To make them do so we have made the prices that will move them. Prices have been smashed ridiculously and you will see the greatest bargains here conceivable. In

Cloaks, Furs, Blankets, and Holiday Goods the greatest havoc has been wrought. If you are wise you will be the
